Confidential

Dear Kathryn,

I confirm receipt of the signed copy of your letter which you also sent via email. I also confirm that I have forwarded your request to exercise the options referred to in your letter to the Compensation Committee of the company. The Compensation Committee will consider your request promptly. To better inform the Compensation Committee, could you kindly please confirm how you intend to (i) pay the $600,000 exercise price for the options and (ii) satisfy any applicable withholding tax obligations arising due to your exercise? For your information, the current market value per share is $18,000.

Kind regards,

Keith Larson

Subject: [EXTERNAL]: re Request to exercise Options

Dear Mr. Larson:

As you know, I have wanted to start the process to request the ability to exercise some options that Terry Newendorp held (my now deceased husband). Attached is the email version of my request. I have put in the mail the signed copy for your attention/records.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Best regards,

Kathryn Lindquist
